In the High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh.

CR No.6446 of 2007
Date of decision:13.12.2007.

M/s. Anupam Enterprises.G.T. Road,Palwal. ... Petitioner.

Versus

State of Haryana and others ... Respondents.

Present: Mr.Puneet Kanwal, Advocate, for
Mr.Pankaj Jain, Advocate, for the petitioner.

PERMOD KOHLI, J. (Oral):

This revision is directed against the order dated 30.07.2007 passed by the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), Palwal, closing the evidence of the petitioner-plaintiff. It is stated that despite third last opportunity, the plaintiff-petitioner has failed to produce its evidence.

I find no infirmity in the impugned order. However, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner-plaintiff submits that one opportunity may be granted to the petitioner to produce its entire evidence. It is informed that the next date in the case is 28.1.2008, for the evidence of the defendants.

In the interest of justice, one opportunity is granted to the petitioner to produce its entire evidence on the said date. The petitioner will file affidavits of the witnesses at least two weeks in advance with copies to opposite side and produce the witnesses for cross-examination. The other side shall cross-examine the witnesses on the aforesaid date. On the failure of the petitioner to comply with this order, the impugned order shall remain operative.

Revision Petition is disposed of.

Copy of the order be given dasti to the counsel for the petitioner on payment of usual copying charges.
